

Term 1 2006 National Grading Master Information

NAOERO EBEN BWIO Rich Task

DRAFT for DISCUSSION

Presentation

Engagement

Detailed information that measures changes in the population of the species studied, understands its needs and threatening processes and proposes feasible solutions.

Creative, careful design and presentation of information and arts and crafts showing attention to detail and productive use of the chosen forms of presentation.

Consistent intensive enthusiastic engagement in teamwork and personal endeavour in all aspects of the task.

A

Information that links the change in the species studied to its needs and threatening processes and effectively measures the changes.

Creative design and presentation of information and artefacts.

Consistent contribution to team work and personal endeavour in individual aspects of the task.

B

Information that links the change in the species studied to its needs and threatening processes.

Effective presentation of information and skilful completion of an artefact.

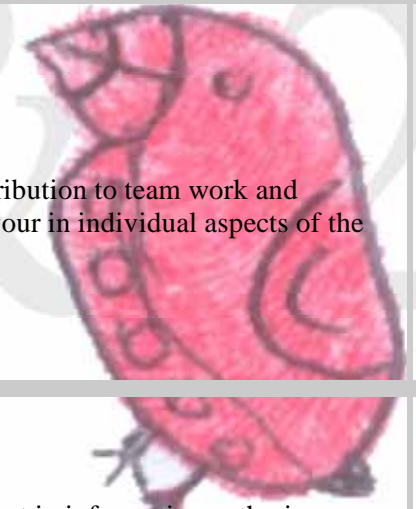

Some engagement in information gathering or presentation and a personal contribution to making an artefact.

C

Information that describes a local species and indicated how their population is changing.

Effective presentation of information and engagement with an art/craft.

U local Canary

Year 1 & 2

			A
			B
			C
			U