Grading Master - Wicked Poster Designs

Design Principles	Communication	ICT Skills
Creatively combines a range of design concepts including at least type faces, colour, balance, symmetry to create an aesthetically pleasing eye-catching product.	Graphical and typographical design is consistent assisting the flow of information and how the eye travels through the Page design. What is said and displayed in the poster communicates a strong message.	Choose computer packages which suit the job and use multiple packages or elements of packages to create high quality products. Clearly show capacity to create using advanced features of software. Able to help others use technology and /or communicate "how to" information to others.	A
	Graphical design aids readability and conveys important and accurate information for the known audience.	Use software features to create interesting graphical effects and manage the file management and backup of own work.	B
Combines key design principles to create a neat attractive design.
		Can use the features of software to create a product, save drafts and complete a final printed or digital product.	C
	Accurately conveys the message using headlines, text and graphic elements.
Uses design principles to separate elements of the pages.		With help, can use basic editing and file management skills to complete a product.
			U